ABSTRACT

Maasai Mara University as part of the family of higher institutions of learning in the world; it has deliberate intentions to create an interactive and stimulating environment through conferences, workshops, internship and quality teaching among others. It is presumed that these opportunities will help individual members of staff and students to achieve the highest intellectual growth and to prepare them for participation to innovative contributions in areas of education, science and technology. These efforts will eventually be harnessed to realize national, regional and global change and development. This paper further explores the Philosophy of Maasai Mara University of being determined to produce well-trained manpower equipped with technological/ scientific knowledge and ethical values founded on African tradition and principles. With these attributes, the graduates of Maasai Mara University will continue to act as role models in the advancement of socio-economic affairs for development and prosperity in the global perspective. Finally the paper examines the programmes offered by Maasai Mara University in light of becoming innovative and responsive to the immediate and long-term scientific and technological needs in Kenya and the world at large.
